The Campbell.—The people will go to hear Peel's Campbells, despite the weather. Last evening a large audience was at Huston Hall to witness the opening entertainment, and we are sure every body was delighted. The frequent hearty applause of the people fully told that story. And here we will speak of a "feature" of Peel's entertainments which is in happy contrast with too many "burnt cork" performers; and it will be readily credited by those present last night. Every member of the troupe exerts himself to the utmost to please the audience; there is no lagging back; there is no gagging a promising star; but from one end of the circle to the other, there seems to be a determined effort to put forth all the ability, talent and cleverness possessed by the entire troupe. An audience can see this, and appreciate it.

To night the Campbell's give another of their really excellent performances, "rain or shine," with a material change of programme. Aside from the side splitting fun of the evening, which will put the audience in good humor for a week, "The Irishman's Shanty," by Matt. Peel; "Mountain Kate" by ———; and "The Cot where I was born," by Abbeo, are of themselves richly worth the price of admission. Go to night.

The Diorama of the Russian War will open at Huston Hall on Thursday evening. Newspaper critics, wherever it has been exhibited, pronounce it one of the finest affairs ever seen. An excellent lecture will be given in explanation of every illustrated scene.

"Tax's Ur"—The time for opening the summer season of luxuries has arrived, and although we have to day a "little spirit" of disagreeable weather, Mr. Bucke, successor to Nick Ohmer, at his old stand, corner of Main and 2d street, has opened his elegant saloons for the season, and will from this time forth be prepared to supply gentlemen and ladies with Ice Cream, Lemonade, Soda, etc., at the saloons, or will furnish what they may desire, on order. Call this afternoon and evening, and test the quality of his extra good things.

Don't forget that this is Frank Welty's great Opening Day. Those who desire to feel as though spring was really here, and have a remembrance of the "good times long ago," should call at his Saloon, Main street, east side just above 4th street, and try his delicious Ice Cream, Orange Ice, and an infinity of luxuries, which can be had to day, and from this time forth through the season.

Wan's BE EXCELLED.—The readers of the Empire are referred to the spring announcement of Mr. B. F. Wait, corner of 5th and Clay streets, Oregon. He has just received a large and elegant supply of seasonable goods as can be found any where; and he insists that he can give a little better bargain than can be had on this side of the canal, as his rents and other expenses are not as heavy as they are here. That he has the goods we know, for we have seen them; and his assortment is as extensive as any body's, while the quality is not surpassed in the city. It would be well for our lady friends to give him a trial, and test the matter of bargain. Mr. Wait and his gentlemanly assistants will take pleasure in showing their goods, and they feel confident of pleasing the people.

George Ohmer, who will not be outdone when good things are in question, commences his Ice Cream Season to-day. George having had frequent calls from his numerous friends for the luxuries of life, has determined to "force the season," if necessary; and from this day until the cold weather comes in the fall, he will have on hand the best of Ice Cream, Lemonade, Sparkling Soda, and an infinity of good things. Remember that he has a Saloon expressly for the Ladies. Call and see him, one door east of the Post Office.

"CONSERVATORY JOURNAL."—This is the title of a paper just established in Boston, which will be devoted to establishing a "Massachusetts Conservatory of Art, Science, and Historical Relics." It will no doubt be a highly interesting sheet to all Massachusetts people everywhere. The initial number is mainly taken up with plans for the great work sought to be effected, and the names of the subscribers to the Conservatory. We will refer to the paper again as its appearance, when we will be able to form a more satisfactory estimate of its abilities from its general performance.

THE GYMNASIUM THIS EVENING.—The Dayton Gymnasium offers a great attraction this evening in the exhibition by the German Turners. We learn that quite a number of ladies have expressed a desire to be present and witness the entertainment; and as the room is small, the attendance will be limited. We learn, to members and accompanying ladies. We regret this, as the people, very generally, would be pleased to attend.

NARROW MOON—HOME AND CHURCH SWIFT AWAY.—Yesterday evening while Mr. Sweetnam was engaged with a horse and cart in haul away scraps from the glue factory, near the Levee, he drove into the river, which was then rising rapidly, and the horse stepping off a bank into a deep place, the whole party were in an instant carried out into the deep water. Mr. S. with difficulty reached the shore, while the horse and cart were swept away. The horse and cart have not since been heard from, and of course are lost.

DEAD.—The telegraph informs us that the noted Indian Chief, Billy Bowlegs, is dead.

NEWS ITEMS.

Madame De Wilhorat's "sweet little foot" is an object of extravagant eulogy among opera goers. A glimpse of it inspires sensation.

Various practical Horticulturalists stated in the meeting of the Hamilton Co. Horticultural Society on Saturday, that fruit is yet safe, and that crops will be abundant if frosts hereafter do not blast them.

Sixty prisoners are confined in the Hamilton county Jail, of whom eight are females, and nineteen are women.

An Indian has been discovered in California five feet high and weighing only sixteen pounds, being a mere skeleton, but in good health and lively. This is supposed to be the veritable "Lo, the poor Indian."

The editor of the Greenville Democrat, who has just returned from a visit through several of the counties of Upper East Tennessee, says that the wheat crop is looking quite promising. Newspaper accounts from other sections bring the same welcome intelligence.

Three children have recently been poisoned in Georgia by eating the flowers of the yellow jessamine.

The Mayville Eagle, of Monday, says that the fruit in that neighborhood yet remains unharmed, notwithstanding the temperature of the atmosphere has been below the freezing point two or three nights the past week. The indications are certainly very flattering for a large crop of every kind of fruit, and unless some very cold weather sets in at an early day, this part of the country will have its full share.

Mr. H. declared that his wife had five faithful children, and that she was a beautiful, youthful, plentiful, and an ardent. But his wife pleasantly rejoined, that she had but one faithful husband.

City Council.

CITY COUNCIL CHAMBER,
MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1859.

The City Council assembled last evening. Mr. Decker was called to the Chair. The new members, Messrs. Wiggner, Blinn, Kierstead, Boyle, Butts and Bomberger, were sworn in by the Mayor.

The Council then proceeded to the election of President. Mr. Phillips nominated Mr. Bomberger, Mr. Thomas nominated Mr. More. On the 9th ballot Mr. Bomberger was declared elected President of the Council, having received a majority of all the votes.

Mr. Bomberger then took the Chair—tendered his thanks for the honor conferred upon him—said he was a "new hand at the bellows"—anticipated no difficulty in the way of harmonious action, as he felt sure he would be by the members of the body.

The bonds of C. C. Kiefer, City Treasurer; Wm. Hannon, Marshal; John Kline, Market Master; Wm. Trebin, Street Commissioner; D. V. Atkins, Assessor; First Ward; Thomas Wise, Second; Philip Leubner, Third; Jacob Stephens, Fourth; J. H. Schuchly, Fifth; Jacob Gantz, Sixth, were presented and accepted.

On motion of Mr. Decker, it was resolved that the meetings of the Council should be held on Tuesday evening of each week. Adjourned to meet to-morrow.

Mr. C. Hanstine, the husband of the woman who was suddenly killed by lightning on Saturday evening last, desires us to correct his account of the matter. He says there was no material substance as to about the person of his wife at the time she was struck with lightning. Mr. C.'s hands were badly burned while extinguishing the burning clothing upon the body of his wife.

The Assignee's sale of Jewelry is in progress at the room in the Phillips House, next door to Dietrich's Drug Store. The people seem to be pleased with the goods, and are "going in" for them. Those who want bargains in jewelry should go there soon, as they remain but a short time. Their goods are as represented. Wall Bennett is selling low.

Our readers will notice that our energetic friends, Heckler, Remley & Maxton announced the receipt of new styles of China, Glass, Plated and Queensware, to-day. They have a very superior stock of fresh ware, and our readers can find at their establishment anything they may desire, 2d st., near Main.

In addition to a very superior style of pegged work, Wash Wilson, Main st., 3d door below Market, is getting up some of the nicest "sawed work" we ever saw. He can please the most fastidious taste in the style and quality of his work, for he makes it in his own shop.

England and Russia have joined France, in requesting that Sardinia be admitted to the European Congress which is soon to assemble to settle Italian affairs. It is believed that Austria cannot resist the wish of the great powers.

See notice of arrival of another large lot of "Pink eyes," at Brandenburg's. They are now prepared to furnish all kinds for planting—the best varieties in the world.

A rumor is being whispered about that the Light Guard intend coming out on Thursday afternoon. We hope it may prove true; we would like to see the Guard out once more.

Some fellow who seemed to be "spilling for fire," got up an alarm on a slender foundation, yesterday afternoon. He succeeded in getting out the engines.

The dip net fishermen are doing a heavy sucker business. "Ruffer's dam" is said to be the centre of operations.

The rainy season seems to have set in for a long reign.

A fellow who was put in the watch house to-day, was too drunk to tell his name.

THE CINCINNATI PAPERS OF YESTERDAY

made a simultaneous onslaught upon the Sunday Enquirer, indicating that the movement was premeditated. For our part, we could see nothing but about the Sunday Enquirer; but if the city contemporaries of the Enquirer believe, as they say, that a good Sunday paper would be a proper institution, would it not be better for them to institute a model, rather than make mouths at the performance of another? The "motive in the simultaneous attack" referred to is too transparent; it should have been covered over more carefully. We presume the Sunday Enquirer has a much greater circulation than some people think it ought to have.

Dull times, says a contemporary, are the very best for advertisers. What little is going on they get, and while others are grumbling, they pay their way—and with their newspaper for a life-preserver, swim on the top of the water, while others are sinking all around.

A speech of Mr. Soule, recently made in New Orleans, has been reported, and an extract has found its way into the Cincinnati Commercial. If the document proves any thing, it is that a man with a great reputation can talk as foolish as an ordinary man, and with greater glibness.

Mrs. CONNINGHAM.—The Harrisburg correspondent of the Pittsburg Post thus writes:

The much celebrated Mrs. Conningham was in the cars and attracted considerable notice from the male travelers when it was pointed out that she was on board. She is a large, powerful looking woman, with strongly marked features, but not ugly by any means. She is rather robust, and extremely pleasant in conversation, and fond of talking and enjoying a hearty laugh. Mr. S., of your city, occupied a seat along side of this interesting and much looked at lady. Her appearance would remind you of a burly English woman, who loved the good things of this world. She is coming West again this summer to place her daughters at school not far distant from your city. I should here remark that she was traveling under an assumed name for a good reason.
